5. An applicant who, before matriculating in a Faculty, has completed a period of study in another University or Institution of Higher or Further Education, or has alternative accredited study or experience may be deemed by the Dean of that Faculty to have gained up to 120 credits for courses passed in each year of study in that institution up to a maximum of 240 credits. For a student admitted to a General degree a maximum of only 180 credits may be awarded in recognition of prior study.
6. An applicant for an Honours degree, who has obtained appropriate Advanced Level, Advanced Higher or equivalent passes, may be offered entry with advanced standing. Such applicants may be awarded up to 120 credits towards a particular degree programme

24. The Deans, with advice from the Curriculum Approvals Group, shall approve the modules which may be offered in the Faculty, and, for each module, shall determine:
 - a. the pre-requisites;
 - b. the method of assessment and re-assessment; and
 - c. the credits to be awarded to a student who passes the assessment.

E. Certificates, Diplomas and Degrees

25. For a student who has transferred credits (see Regulation B4), that student must have gained passes in modules taught in the University of St Andrews worth at least 120 credits in order to be eligible for the award of a Certificate or Diploma by the University of St Andrews, at least 180 credits to be eligible for the award of a General Degree by the University of St Andrews and at least 240 to be eligible for the award of an Honours degree by the University of St Andrews. Exceptions to this requirement may be made at the discretion of the Dean of the relevant Faculty.
26. A graduating student who, over a minimum period of one year of full-time study, has gained passes in modules taught in the University worth 120 credits shall be eligible for the award of a Certificate of Higher Education.
27. A student who, over a minimum period of two years of full-time study, has gained 240 credits in modules taught in the University, of which at least 80 are in 2000-level modules, shall be eligible for the award of a Diploma of Higher Education.
28. A student who, over a minimum period of three years of full-time study, or fewer where Recognition of Prior Learning has been granted, has gained 360 credits, of which at least 80 are at 2000-level and at least 60 are at 3000-level or above, and who has fulfilled any other requirements prescribed in the relevant Faculty Regulations, shall be eligible for the award of a General Degree.
29. The General Degree may be awarded with Distinction to a student who fulfils the conditions for the award of the degree and who either gains:
 - passes at grade 16.5 or above in modules totalling 120 credits;
 - OR
 - passes at grade 13.5 or above in modules totalling 180 credits of which 20 credits must be passed at grade 16.5 or above and 40 credits must be at 2000 and 3000-level.

30. A student who, over a minimum period of four years of full-time study, or fewer where Recognition of Prior Learning has been granted, has gained 480 credits, of which at least 240 credits were gained during an approved Honours programme involving Honours modules worth at least 210 credits and including at least 90 credits in 4000-level modules, and has satisfied the appropriate Board(s) of Examiners, shall be eligible for the award of BSc/MA/BD or MTheol degree with Honours in the subject(s) of that Honours programme. In the case of the BSc Chemical Sciences programme the minimum number of

- e. International Honours degrees shall be degrees where the number of required credits in a single (or core) subject area equals three-quarters of the total credits for the Honours programme. Any other subjects taken as part of the Honours programme shall not be named.
35. There shall be three classes of Honours determined by performance in the Honours Programme:
